ORAL JUDGEMENT

In this group of three matters, virtually common questions are involved, and therefore, they are being disposed of by this common judgment, upon request.

The petitions are against the interim order of Gujarat State Co-operative Tribunal arising out Lavad Suits. It has been stated at the Bar that those suits have now matured and at an advanced stage. The dispute on merits is pending in suits before the Registrar's Board of Nominees, Ahmedabad. It would be, therefore, expedient to direct for expeditious disposal of the suits on merits and dispose of this group of petitions under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, against the interlocutory orders, which have now become final.

Therefore, all these three petitions shall stand disposed of with a direction to the Registrar's Board of Nominees before whom Lavad Suits Nos.1137/99, 1138/99 and 1039/99 are pending, to expedite and decide them on merits. It is jointly submitted that direction may be given with a time-frame. Therefore, the Registrar's Board of Nominees is directed to decide the said Lavad suits as early as possible and preferably before the end of two months from the date of receipt of writ from this Court. Rule discharged. Interim relief stands vacated.
